

Michael Meyer is a Professor at the Department of Management at WU Vienna. He heads WU's Competence Center for Nonprofits and Social Entrepreneurship, the Institute for Nonprofit-Management, he is a member of the executive board of the EUCLID network and of the Stanford PACS Civic Life of Cities Lab. Michael's current research focuses on urban civil societies, managerialism, nonprofit governance, civic participation (volunteering, giving), and social entrepreneurship. His teaching and training activities also embrace organization theory, leadership, and organizational behavior.

On all these topics, he has (co-)authored and edited more than 200 scholarly publications (<https://bach.wu.ac.at/d/research/ma/1147/#publications>, <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4253-0064>)