

Short CV:

Klaus Schuster, MD, MA, MBA

Senior executive with broad experience and strong track record working in leading executive functions in healthcare for over 25 years;

combining deep medical knowledge (working on the bed-side for more than 10 years as a specialized physician in a university hospital) and extensive business experience in the health care industry in executive functions strong leadership and inspired by developing people in optimizing individual and business results, striving for creating sustainable impact; many years of C-level-management experience in various health care areas driving sustainable change in a multi-stakeholder environment.

renowned speaker at high-level congresses (e.g. ASN, ISPD, EHFG, Alpbach), academic record in medicine and health economics with deep knowledge of policy aspects in health care management in multiple countries in Europe;